Protecting Wildlife

We share our planet with countless incredible creatures, from the grizzly on the ridgeline to the bee in the meadow, from the wolf in the forest to the butterfly in our backyard. Right now, over 1,300 species are listed under the Endangered Species Act as either endangered or threatened. Another 12,000 are considered vulnerable and in need of conservation, so it's great news that the U.S. House of Representatives voted on the bipartisan Recovering America's Wildlife Act, the largest, most significant investment in wildlife and habitat conservation in a generation. Now we need the U.S. Senate to take action. Urge your Senator to pass the Recovering America's Wildlife Act by sending them artwork of a species in need of protection.

How to mail finished artwork to your Senator

Step 1: Color one of the following pages or draw your own picture of America's wildlife.

Step 2: Find the address of your Senator using this directory:

<https://www.senate.gov/senators/senators-contact.htm>

Step 3: Address your envelope, put the artwork inside and seal it.

Step 4: Ask an adult to help you stamp and mail it.

Your Name Address Line 1 Address Line 2	Postage stamp
The Honorable (Senator's Name) Address Line 1 Address Line 2

We'd love to see your finished artwork! Ask an adult to share it with us on social media before putting it in the mail.
